ALUMINUM CORPORATION OF CHINA LIMITED
DETAILED IMPLEMENTATION RULES FOR THE REMUNERATION COMMITTEE UNDER THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

CHAPTER I GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1

For the purpose of establishing and standardizing the remuneration working systems and procedures of Aluminum Corporation of China Limited (hereinafter referred to as the “Company”), the Company sets up a Remuneration Committee (hereinafter referred to as the “Committee”) under the Board of Directors and hereby formulate these Detailed Implementation Rules (hereinafter referred to as the “Rules”) in accordance with the Company Law of the People’s Republic of China (hereinafter referred to as the “Company Law”), Code of Governance for Listed Companies, the rules governing the listing of shares or securities on the stock exchanges (including Shanghai Stock Exchange, The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited and New York Stock Exchange) where the shares of the Company are listed (hereinafter referred to as the “Relevant Listing Rules”) and other laws, regulations, normative documents as well as the relevant provisions under the Articles of Association of the Company (hereinafter referred to as the “Articles of Association”) and Rules of Procedures for the Board of Directors of the Company.

Article 2 The Remuneration Committee is a special operating mechanism set up by the Board of Directors; it shall be accountable to the Board of Directors and mainly responsible for providing advices and putting forward suggestions for relevant decisions made by the Board of Directors and reporting to the Board of Directors.

Article 3 The Detailed Implementation Rules are applicable to the Committee and relevant personnel and departments involved in these rules.

CHAPTER II COMMITTEE COMPOSITION

Article 4 The Remuneration Committee consists of three directors, and the majority of them shall be independent non-executive directors. Members of the Remuneration Committee shall be nominated by Chairman of the Board of Directors or not less than one third of all directors and be elected or removed by the Board of Directors with the affirmative voting of more than 50 percent of all directors.

Article 5 The Remuneration Committee has one Director, who shall be an independent non-executive director and nominated by the Chairman of the Board of Directors and elected or removed by the Board of Directors. The Director of the Remuneration Committee shall exercise the following powers:

- (1) to be responsible for chairing the Committee's work and ensuring the Committee's effective operation and performance of duties;

- (6) to ensure that the Committee has a clear and specific conclusion on each motion under discussion;
- (7) other duties required to be fulfilled by the Board of Directors.

Article 6 The term of office of the Remuneration Committee is the same as that of the Board of Directors, and the term of office of the Committee's members is the same as that of the directors. The members may be reelected when their terms of office expire. Where any member does not serve as director of the Company during his or her term of office, he or she shall be disqualified as a member automatically, and his or her vacancy shall be filled by the Board of Directors according to the provisions in the above Article 4.

A committee member may not be removed without cause before the expiration of his or her term, unless there is any circumstance that the committee member shall not be in office in accordance with the laws, regulations, the Articles of Association or the provisions in these Rules.

Article 7 Committee members may tender their resignations to the Board of Directors before the expiration of their terms of office. To resign, a committee member shall submit a written resignation to the Board of Directors and describe the reasons for his/her resignation and matters needed to be concerned by the Board of Directors therein.

Article 8 The committee members may be adjusted with their terms of office if proposed by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or not less than one third of all directors and adopted by the directors via voting.

Article 9 If the number of the committee members falls below the statutory minimum, the Board of Directors shall supplement the number of members in accordance with the provisions in these Rules.
