FOR THE SIX MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30, 2007

(Amounts expressed in RMB unless otherwise stated)

1 BASIS OF PREPARATION

The unaudited condensed interim consolidated financial information is prepared in accordance with Hong Kong Accounting Standard (“HKAS”) 34: “Interim Financial Reporting” issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants and Appendix 16 of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited.

The unaudited condensed interim consolidated financial information should be read in conjunction with the 2006 annual financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2006.

The unaudited condensed interim consolidated financial information was approved by the Board of Directors for issue on August 20, 2007.

2 SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The accounting policies adopted are consistent with those of the annual financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2006.

The following new standard, amendments to standard and interpretation which are applicable to the Group are mandatory for the financial year ending December 31, 2007.

- Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standard (“HKFRS”) 7, Financial Instruments: Disclosures and a complementary amendment to HKAS 1, Presentation of Financial Statements - Capital Disclosures (effective from annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2007). HKFRS 7 introduces new disclosures relating to financial instruments. This standard introduces certain revised disclosure requirements, including the mandatory disclosures on sensitivity analysis for each type of market risk. It replaces HKAS 30, Disclosures in the Financial Statements of Banks and Similar Financial Institutions, and disclosure requirements in HKAS 32, Financial Instruments: Disclosure and Presentation and is applicable to all entities reporting under HKFRS. The amendment to HKAS 1 introduces disclosures on the objectives, policies and processes for managing capital. Except for an extension of disclosures, management considered there was no significant impact from adopting HKFRS 7 and the amendment to HKAS 1 on the financial statements of the Group.

According to the relevant requirements under the new PRC GAAP, certain adjustments were made to the retained earnings in previous years upon first-time adoption. Pursuant to the relevant provisions in the PRC laws and financial regulations, the Group is required to transfer 10% of the profit after taxation to the statutory reserve until the balance reaches 50% of its paid-up share capital while the new PRC GAAP no longer permits share of surplus reserves of subsidiaries at consolidation level. Hence, an additional adjustment on the transfer is made in the current period.

The current PRC enterprise income taxes of the Group have been provided on the estimated assessable profit and the appropriate tax rates for the period. Certain branches of the Group located in special regions of the PRC were granted tax concessions including paying preferential tax rate of 15% for a period of 10 years, exempting from PRC income tax for the first 5 years and a 50% reduction thereafter, exempting from income tax for the first year and a 50% reduction thereafter, etc. Moreover, the Group also enjoyed incentive in the form of tax credit given by the relevant tax authorities in respect of domestically manufactured production equipment purchased. For the six months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006, the Group's weighted average effective tax rate was approximately 19.15% and 26.80%, respectively. The decrease in the effective tax rate is mainly attributable to the enterprise income tax credit obtained from the purchase of domestically manufactured production equipment, and preferential income tax rate of 15% enjoyed from the acquisitions of Zunyi Aluminum and Lanzhou Aluminum, which were located in the western region of the PRC.

On March 16, 2007, the National People's Congress approved the Corporate Income Tax Law of the People's Republic of China (the "new CIT Law"), which is effective from January 1, 2008. Under the new CIT Law, the corporate income tax rate applicable to the Company starting from January 1, 2008 will be 25%, replacing the currently applicable tax rate of 33%. For certain branches in the Company which are applying 15% tax rate, the tax rate will gradually increase to 25%. As there is still no detailed implementations rulings released, the Group adjusted deferred tax balances as of June 30, 2007 based on their best estimates and will continue to assess the impact of such new law in the future.

Deferred tax is calculated in full on temporary differences under the liability method using the respective applicable rates.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION

SIGNIFICANT DIFFERENCES BETWEEN HKFRS AND ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLES GENERALLY ACCEPTED IN THE UNITED STATES

The unaudited condensed interim consolidated financial information has been prepared in accordance with HKFRS which may differ in various material respects from accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ("US GAAP").

Major and significant differences, which affect net income and equity, include the following:

(a) Revaluation of property, plant and equipment

Under HKFRS, property, plant and equipment transferred from Chinalco to the Group were accounted for under the acquisition accounting. As a result, the Group's property, plant and equipment were revalued at fair value under HKFRS. Under US GAAP, the new cost basis for the property, plant and equipment was not established for the Group as the transfer was a transaction under common control. When an asset is transferred from the parent to its wholly-owned subsidiary, the subsidiary records the asset at the parent's carrying value.

(b) Recognition of excess of interest in the net fair value of net assets acquired over cost

Excess of interest in the net fair value of net assets acquired over cost arise from business combination or acquisition. Under HKFRS, the identification and measurement of acquiree's identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities are re-assessed. Any excess remaining after reassessment is recognized in income statement immediately. Under US GAAP, any excess after reassessment is used to reduce proportionately the fair values assigned to non-current assets (with certain exceptions). Any remaining excess is recognized in the income statement immediately as an extraordinary gain.

(c) Revaluation of mining rights

As part of the Group reorganization and pursuant to the Mining Rights Transfer Agreement, the Group acquired mining rights of eight bauxite mines and four limestone quarries from Chinalco for a consideration of RMB285,341,000. Under HKFRS, mining rights acquired are capitalized and stated at acquisition cost less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses. Amortization of mining rights is calculated on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives of not more than 30 years. Under US GAAP, the new cost basis was not established for the Group as the transfer was a transaction under common control.

(d) Fair value of cost of acquisitions

In November 2006, the Company entered into agreements with Lanzhou Aluminum and Shandong Aluminum in acquiring the remaining share capital from their respective shareholders. On April 24, 2007, the Company acquired 72% and 28.57% of share capital of Lanzhou Aluminum and Shandong Aluminum through issuing A shares. Such A shares were then listed on the SHEx on April 30, 2007. Under HKFRS, fair value of cost of acquisition was determined using the estimated fair value of the instrument at the date of exchange. Under US GAAP, such fair value is determined when the terms of acquisition are agreed to and announced.

Accordingly, balance of goodwill and related adjustment to equity (See (e) below) are different between HKFRS and US GAAP.

(e) Acquisition of minority interest of a subsidiary

Prior to 2007, the Company held 71.43% equity interest in Shandong Aluminum. In April 2007, the Company acquired the remaining 28.57% equity interest of this subsidiary. Under HKFRS, such an acquisition does not qualify a business combination and any difference between consideration paid and the proportionate share of book value of net assets acquired is accounted for as equity. Under US GAAP, the proportionate share of net assets acquired is adjusted for fair value before determining the amount of goodwill.

Accordingly, balance of goodwill and the related impact of depreciation and amortization expenses between HKFRS and US GAAP on income statement is different.

(f) Minority interest

Under HKFRS, minority interest is included as a component of equity and profit and loss attributable to minority interest is included as a component of the Company's total net income. Under US GAAP, minority interest is excluded from equity and presented as a separate item before net income.

(g) Income tax effect of US GAAP adjustments

Under US GAAP, deferred taxes relating to the reversal of the property, plant and equipment revaluation, mining rights and the recognition of excess of interest in the net fair value of net assets acquired over cost are recognized.

CHANGE IN ACCOUNTING POLICY

In the current period, the Group has changed their accounting policy following their adoption of the new FASB Interpretation ("FIN") below, which are relevant to their operations.

- FIN 48 Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes - an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109

FIN 48 prescribes the recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. It also provides guidance on derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosures and transition. Management considered there was no significant impact from adopting FIN 48 on the financial information of the Group.

INTERIM DIVIDEND

The Board proposes an interim dividend of RMB0.137 per ordinary share (tax inclusive) in respect of the six months ended June 30, 2007, totaling RMB1.765 billion, calculated on the basis of 12,886,607,892 shares in issue as of June 30, 2007. The proposed interim dividend will be considered at a special general meeting of shareholders.

SPECIAL DIVIDEND

The Company's merger with Shandong Aluminum and Lanzhou Aluminum was completed on April 24, 2007 and the new Chalco A shares were listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange on April 30, 2007. As none of Shandong Aluminum and Lanzhou Aluminum had declared any dividends in 2006, the Company intends to distribute the undistributed profits of Shandong Aluminum and Lanzhou Aluminum for 2006 by way of special dividend. Given that a final dividend for 2006 has been paid to the interests attributable to the Company based on its shareholdings respectively in both companies, the proposed special dividend is the share of the retained earnings of the minority interest of these two companies acquired, which is proposed to be made to the shareholders at RMB0.013 per ordinary share (tax inclusive) in cash totaling approximately RMB167,526,000. The proposal for payment of special dividend will be submitted to a special general meeting of the Company for consideration and approval.

- Alumina segment, which consists of mining and purchasing bauxite and other raw materials, refining bauxite into alumina, and selling alumina both internally to the Group's primary aluminum smelters and externally to customers outside the Group. This segment also includes the production and sales of alumina chemicals (including alumina hydrate and alumina chemical products) and gallium.
- Primary aluminum segment, which consists of procuring alumina and other raw materials, supplemental materials and electricity, production and selling of almost all primary aluminum to external customers. In addition, this segment includes production and sales of carbon products and small amount of aluminum-fabricated products.
- Corporate and other services segment, which include the headquarters' operations, research conducted by the Group's research institutes, provision of the Group's research and development services to third parties.

CHALCO

Interim Report 2007

SALES

The Group's turnover increased from RMB27,797 million in the first half of 2006 to RMB36,528 million in the first half of 2007, representing an increase of RMB8,731 million or 31.4%. The increase was primarily due to the increase in external sales volume of alumina and primary aluminum.

In the first half of 2007, the Group's external sales volume of primary aluminum reached 1,290,500 tonnes (including a trading volume of 640,000 tonnes), representing an increase of 607,400 tonnes or 89% from 683,100 tonnes (including a trading volume of 301,800 tonnes) in the first half of 2006. The increase was primarily attributable to the increase of 221,900 tonnes of sales volume of primary aluminum upon the acquisition and establishment of Zunyi Aluminum and other subsidiaries in the second half of 2006 and the merger of Lanzhou Aluminum by the Company, an increase of 101,200 tonnes in sales volume due to the commencement of operation of Shanxi-Huasheng at the end of 2006, and an increase of approximately 284,300 tonnes in sales volume due to the efficiency-based increase of output through technological renovation of production lines and increased trade sales. The increased sales volume of primary aluminum led to an increase of RMB10,678 million in revenue.

The external sales volume of alumina increased from 3,302,400 tonnes (including a trading volume of 389,000 tonnes) in the first half of 2006 to 3,615,700 tonnes (including a trading volume of 862,600 tonnes) in the first half of 2007, representing an increase of 313,300 tonnes or 9.5%. The increase was primarily attributable to the increased trading volume of the Group's products and the external sales volume of alumina partly offset by its increased internal sales volume due to the acquisition and establishment of Zunyi Aluminum and other subsidiaries in the second half of 2006. The increased external sales volume of alumina led to an increase of RMB1,241 million in revenue.

Due to the influence of selling price of primary aluminum, the Group's external selling price of primary aluminum decreased by RMB460 per tonne or 2.6% from RMB17,582 per tonne (VAT excluded, similarly hereinafter) in the first half of 2006 to RMB17,122 per tonne in the first half of 2007. The decrease in selling price led to a decrease of RMB594 million in revenue.

In the first half of 2007, the Group's external selling price of alumina reached RMB2,956 per tonne, representing a decrease of RMB1,005 per tonne or 25.4% from RMB3,961 per tonne in the first half of 2006. The decrease of selling price led to a decrease of RMB3,634 million in revenue.

Revenue of the Group's alumina chemicals and other products increased by approximately RMB1,040 million in the first half of 2007 as compared to the corresponding period of 2006.

COST OF SALES

The Group's total cost of sales increased by RMB9,336 million or 56% from RMB16,672 million in the first half of 2006 to RMB26,008 million in the first half of 2007. The total cost of sales increased due to the growth in external sales volume and the increased unit cost of sales of alumina and primary aluminum.

SELLING AND DISTRIBUTION EXPENSES

The Group's selling and distribution expenses increased by RMB72 million or 17.6% from RMB410 million in the first half of 2006 to RMB482 million in the first half of 2007, which was primarily attributable to the increase in transporting, loading and packing fees due to the growth in sales volume of primary aluminum, as offset by a reduction of selling and distribution expenses through rational allocation and direction of product sales flow by the Group.

GENERAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

The Group's general and administrative expenses increased by RMB29 million or 2.9% from RMB1,007 million in the first half of 2006 to RMB1,036 million in the first half of 2007, of which, the general and administrative expenses increased by RMB69 million due to merging of new subsidiaries. Excluding this impact, the Group's general and administrative expenses represented a slight decrease from last year.

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT COST

The Group's research and development expenses reached RMB41 million in the first half of 2007, holding the line of RMB41 million for the first half of 2006.

OTHER GAINS, NET

The Group's other net gain in the first half of 2007 was RMB152 million, a decrease of RMB34 million from RMB186 million in the first half of 2006. The decrease of other net gains was attributable to the fact that Chalco International Trading, a subsidiary of the Company, has hedged some of the primary aluminum products in the futures market, resulting in a decrease in gains from the same period of last year.

OPERATING PROFIT

As a result of the foregoing, the Group's operating profit decreased by RMB742 million from RMB9,854 million in the first half of 2006 to RMB9,112 million in the first half of 2007, representing a decrease of 7.5%. The Group's operating profit as a percentage of sales was 25% in the first half of 2007, representing a decrease of 10% from 35% in the first half of 2006.

FINANCE COSTS

The Group's finance cost increased by RMB88 million or 27.3% from RMB322 million in the first half of 2006 to RMB410 million in the first half of 2007. Such an increase was mainly attributable to the increase of RMB96 million in the interest expense of bank loans, partially offset by exchange gains in the first half of 2007 due to the change in foreign exchange rate.

INCOME TAXES

The Group's income tax expenses decreased by RMB868 million or 33.9% from RMB2,563 million in the first half of 2006 to RMB1,695 million in the first half of 2007. Of the reduction in income taxes, RMB236 million was due to a year-on-year decrease in the Group's profit; a year-on-year increase of RMB410 million due to the preferential policies on reduction and exemption of enterprise income tax for the purchase of domestically manufactured production equipment obtained by the two of the Group's subsidiaries, Shanxi-Huasheng and Lanzhou Aluminum; and approximately RMB222 million was due to the change in deferred tax.

In the first half of 2007, the Group's average tax rate was 19.15%, which was lower than the average tax rate of 26.80% in the corresponding period of last year. Such average tax rate was also lower than the statutory tax rate of 33%. This is mainly attributable to the income tax credit for acquisition of domestically manufactured production equipment and the consolidation of Zunyi Aluminum and Lanzhou Aluminum, both of which are located in the western region of the PRC.

MINORITY INTEREST

Minority interests increased from RMB258 million in the first half of 2006 to RMB760 million in the first half of 2007, representing an increase of RMB502 million. This is mainly due to the increase of minority interest after the acquisition of subsidiaries.

PROFIT FOR THE PERIOD

As a result of the foregoing, the Group's profit for the period decreased by RMB347 million or 5.15% to RMB6,397 million from RMB6,744 million for the first half of 2006. The Group's profit increased by RMB1,396 million or 28% from RMB5,001 million in the second half of 2006, despite a year-on-year decrease. Through its effective efforts, the Group expanded the production capacity of aluminum by way of merger and acquisition, offsetting the risk of price drop and laying a strong ground for solid operation results.

DISCUSSION OF SEGMENT OPERATIONS

ALUMINA SEGMENT

Sales of Goods

The total sales in the alumina segment of the Group was RMB17,867 million in the first half year of 2007, decreased by RMB1,774 million or 9.0% from RMB19,641 million in the first half of 2006. The decrease was mainly attributable to the decreased unit selling price of alumina products from the same period of last year.

The external sales revenue in the alumina segment amounted to RMB11,774 million in the first half year of 2007, decreased by RMB2,846 million or 19.5% from RMB14,620 million in the first half of 2006. The decrease was mainly attributable to the decreased selling price, partially offset by the increased sales volume from trading.

Revenues from the sales of alumina to the Group's production plant of primary aluminum increased by RMB1,073 million from RMB5,021 million in the first half year of 2006 to RMB6,094 million in the first half of 2007, primarily due to the increased total demand of alumina for production arising from the increased output of the Group's primary aluminum as a result of newly merged entities of primary aluminum, partially offset by the decrease in selling price.

Cost of Goods Sold

The total cost of goods sold in the alumina segment of the Group increased by RMB2,096 million or 20.41% from RMB10,271 million in the first half year of 2006 to RMB12,367 million in the first half of 2007. The increase was mainly attributable to the increased sales volume of alumina from trading, and the higher prices of raw materials and fuel which were partially offset by a reduction in consumption, due to the improved consumption indicators by the Group's technological renovation and strengthened management.

Operating Profit

As a result of the foregoing, the Group's total operating profit of alumina segment decreased by RMB3,754 million or 43.5% from RMB8,636 million in the first half year of 2006 to RMB4,882 million in the first half of 2007. The operating profit of the Group's alumina segment as a percentage of product sales for the first half of 2007 was 27%, down 17% from 44% for the first half of 2006.

PRIMARY ALUMINUM SEGMENT

Sales of Goods

The Group's total sales of goods for the primary aluminum segment increased by RMB11,131 million or 88.7% from RMB12,551 million in the first half of 2006 to RMB23,682 million in first half of 2007. Such an increase was primarily due to the increased sales volume of aluminum as a result of the acquisitions of smelters in the second half of 2006 and the output expansion of the existing smelters due to technological renovation.

Cost of Goods Sold

The total cost of goods sold in the primary aluminum segment of the Group increased by RMB7,988 million from RMB10,713 million in the first half of 2006 to RMB18,701 million in the second half of 2007. The increase was mainly attributable to the increased sales volume of primary aluminum products, partially offset by the year-on-year decrease in the unit selling cost of primary aluminum resulting from the improved consumption indicators by the Group's technological renovation.

Operating Profit

The Group's operating profit from the primary aluminum segment increased by RMB2,966 million from RMB1,566 million in the first half of 2006 to RMB4,532 million in second half of 2007. The operating profit of the primary aluminum segment as a percentage of product sales for the first half of 2007 was 19.1%, up 6.6% over 12.5% for the first half of 2006.

CORPORATE AND OTHER SERVICES SEGMENT

The Group's corporate and other services segments reflected the expenses of the Group's corporate segment and research and development services of the Group's research institute to external customers. This segment recorded a loss of RMB34.97 million for the first half of 2007, basically holding the line of the operating loss at RMB34.46 million for the first half year of 2006.

The turnover days of the Group in the first half of 2007 were shortened by 14 days to 69 days from 83 days in the same period of 2006, primarily due to the effective management on inventory driven by the Group's adoption of ERP management system and centralized management on material procurement and stocks.
- As of June 30, 2007, the Group's net accounts receivable amounted to RMB2,741 million, representing an increase of RMB715 million as compared with RMB2,026 million at the end of 2006. As of June 30, 2007, the Group's current ratio was 1.62, representing an increase of 0.43 from 1.19 at the end of 2006. The quick ratio of the Group was 1.07, representing an increase of 0.3 from 0.77 at the end of 2006.

The Group's external investment commitment amounted to RMB678 million, mainly attributable to the Zunyi alumina project by way of joint ventures and the Guangxi Huayin alumina project. The Group's investment in construction projects, renovation as well as external investment and acquisition improved the Group's capacity and output of alumina and primary aluminum.

Business combination and acquisition of minority interest

On April 24, 2007, the Company issued 631.93 million A shares and completed the merger of the Lanzhou Aluminum by way of share exchange. The total consideration of the transaction was an issue price RMB 4,171 million based on RMB6.60 per A Share and at a fair asset value at RMB2,400 million. As a result of the share exchange merger with Lanzhou Aluminum, the Company recorded an increase of RMB632 million in its share capital and an increase of RMB3,539 million in the capital reserve. Approximately RMB1,771 million of goodwill has also been recognised.

On April 24, 2007, the Company issued 604.80 million A shares and completed the merger of Shangdong Aluminum, a subsidiary, by way of share exchange. As a result of the share exchange merger with Shandong Aluminum, the Company recorded an increase of RMB605 million in share capital and an increase of RMB626 million in capital reserve.

The Group's capital expenditure and external investment are mainly financed by operating activities, short-term and long-term debts and additional placement. In light of the Group's creditability and various domestic and overseas financing methods, the Group believes that there will be no difficulty in financing capital investments and external acquisitions.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents of the Group as of June 30, 2007 amounted to RMB14,746 million, including foreign currency deposits of HK$23.33 million (RMB equivalents), US$61.85 million (RMB equivalents), EUD6.55 million (RMB equivalents) and AUD106.01 million (RMB equivalents).

Cash Flow from Operating Activities

Cash from operating activities decreased by RMB416 million or 6.5% from RMB6,442 million of the first half of 2006 to RMB6,026 million for the first half of 2007. The decrease was primarily due to a slight decrease in the Group's profit.

Cash Flows from Investing Activities

Net cash outflow from investing activities increased by RMB164 million or 7.4% from RMB2,223 million of the first half of 2006 to RMB2,387 million of the first half of 2007. The increase is mainly attributable to the increase in the Group's capital expenditures.

Cash Flows from Financing Activities

Net cash inflows from financing activities amounted to RMB1,305 million in the first half of 2007, increasing by RMB990 million from RMB315 million for the corresponding period of 2006. This was mainly due to the Group's issuance of long-term bonds with net proceeds of RMB1,978 million, additional bank loans of RMB2,521 million, repayments of loans in the amount of RMB3,069 million, and dividend payments of RMB115 million.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE RATE RISK

The Group conducts its business primarily in Renminbi.

Renminbi is not a freely convertible currency. The restrictions on foreign exchange imposed by the PRC government may result in material differences between future exchange rate and current exchange rate or historical exchange rate. The changes in the exchange rate of Renminbi will impact the ability of the Group to carry out operations relating to foreign exchange and will also impact the ability of the Group to pay dividends in HK dollars and to pay dividends of American Depository Shares in US dollars. The Company believes that it is able and will be able to obtain sufficient foreign exchange to implement the above-mentioned obligations.

Impact of Appreciation of Renminbi

As the domestic spot price of alumina is determined by reference to the price of imported alumina, Renminbi appreciation has imposed certain impact on the spot price of alumina in the PRC.

However, Renminbi appreciation will not have a significant impact on the operation of the Group. The main reasons are that the supply of raw material and products sale of the Group are conducted in the PRC and its export of primary aluminum and loans in the form of other foreign currency is minimal. From the perspective on cost competitiveness of products, Renminbi appreciation will reduce the Group's competitiveness in international markets and raise the competitiveness of imported alumina.

The Mutual Supply Agreement was a framework agreement entered into on November 5, 2001 between the Company and Chinalco to regulate mutual supply of production supplies, transportation and loading services, supporting services and ancillary production services between the two parties. The proposed revisions of annual limits are primarily due to (1) the mergers and acquisitions by Chinalco of several large-scale aluminum production plants during 2006 and early 2007 which lead to increased amount and volume of purchases of alumina by Chinalco and its associates from the Company; and (2) Chalco International Trading directly purchases primary aluminum from Chinalco and its associates instead of acting as an agent for such purchases as previously arranged.
